

PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION DOCUMENT

Special note before completing this form

- An original free credit report application form must be completed and signed by the consumer and signed authorisation from the consumer must be attached
- A completed personal identification document (PID) must be completed correctly and attached
- A signed letter on headed paper from the caseworker must be attached and this letter must advise why they want the credit report returning to them eg. the consumer I am helping is serving a custodial sentence

I am willing for this form to be passed to Experian to help me to obtain a credit reference report, and to notify them of my address prior to custody.
