

RegenWM - December e bulletin

West Midlands Regeneration Convention 2008: look to the future

To guarantee your place at this year's convention on Monday 8 December complete an online booking form today. Keynote speakers include Ian Austin MP, Minister for the West Midlands, Jonathon Porritt, Chair of the UK Sustainable Development Commission and Mick Lavery, Chief Executive of Advantage West Midlands. The day will also include masterclasses on key topical issues and the Prizes 2008 ceremony.

For more information and to book your place visit the RegenWM website or call the team on 0121 202 3260.

RegenWM customer satisfaction survey - answer online today

RegenWM is currently undertaking a self-evaluation of its work, impact and services: as part of that we are asking our customers for their views and ideas.

Please take five minutes to complete an online survey about the impact and expectations you have of RegenWM. All results will be anonymised so please be honest and direct. We will alert you of the results through our e-bulletin in due course. We have had over 200 responses so far – thank you.

Upcoming RegenWM seminars

Designing better projects

13 January, 10am to 4pm, Birmingham

Creative and collaborative economic development

15 January, 10am to 1pm, Birmingham

Masterclass: making community projects strategic

20 January, 9.30 to 1pm, West Bromwich

Introduction to brownfield land

21 January, 10 am to 1pm, Wolverhampton

For more information on the Seminar Series please visit our website or contact Rani Mahey on 0121 202 3260.

Centre of Excellence in Land Reclamation

The programme of seminars hosted by RegenWM's centre of excellence in land reclamation will carry on into the New Year with some new, interesting opportunities for learning and knowledge sharing.

Site investigations and remediation technologies

27 January, 9.30am to 12.30pm, Birmingham

For more information and to book a place, please visit the RegenWM website; alternatively you can contact Veronica Barbaro, 0121 202 3260.

Design events for 2009

DEWM Network Event: Sustainability in regeneration, the built environment and building technologies

Join us on 22 January to learn from and explore the Wolseley Sustainable Building Centre, the UK's first commercial showcase for sustainable building products and construction methods.

Save the Date – West Midlands Design Fair

25 February, 4pm -7pm, Custard Factory, Birmingham

Come prepared to make connections, do business and get up to date at this event for all those working in the built environment and towards placemaking. Over 30 stallholders will be offering their information and services.

For more information on either of these design events please contact Carolyn Pratt on 0121 202 3260.