

Two stories behind the Key Awards

The Walsall Lifelong Learning Awards, WLLA's annual celebration of learning achievement, continues to go from strength to strength, and the 9th Walsall Lifelong Learning Awards which were held at the Bescot Stadium on Wednesday 28 March 2007.

This year's guest speaker was travel writer, TV presenter and adventurer, Ben Fogle. A complete all-rounder, Ben was an inspirational speaker about his adventures on the island of Tarransay in BBC's Castaway, his record breaking Atlantic Rowing Race 2005, and about his fascinating TV work both at home and across the five continents. As well as talking about his life, learning journey and reaching goals, Ben presented the Certificates of Recognition to all the nominees and prizes to the category winners. The host for the evening again was former BBC Midlands reporter, Sue Beardsmore.

From Darlaston online the Center as a whole got an award for Recognition of its outstanding work with all learners. The award was collected by Mohammed Saleem center manger. Samina Khatun, Stuart Parker and Farooq Sadique also received awards for out standing help to learners.

Staff and students celebrate the success that they Have achieved through out the night at the WLLA Awards 2007.

Students Ashwani Singh and Chris Nichols both achieved an award. Ashwani also received the next step award

ASHWANI SINGH

CRISTIPHOR NICHOLS